Wendy has worked in commercial real estate for the past six years in the San Antonio market. Initially, she started her commercial real estate career in property management, where she assisted in a portfolio consisting of 270,000+/- square feet. Wendy is currently pursuing her Real Property Administrators (RPA) designation. Most recently, she provided marketing and administrative support for a national commercial real estate firm where she assisted in project leasing, tenant representation, and investments sales.

Wendy is responsible for the firm's daily marketing and administrative support on commercial properties. Her diverse background and experience allows her to assist in all areas of the firm.

Wendy considers herself a native of San Antonio. She is married with two children. She is a dedicated team player and is committed to our clients success.
